

CODE OF ETHICS

DhamdhamaAnchalik College

Dhamdhama, Nalbari, Assam

Pin- 781349

Code of Ethics

Code of ethics is the soul of an institution. It is a set of principles which inspires individual to be honest and sincere. It develops human personality and team spirit of an institution. Code of ethics is extremely important for an educational institute as it develops human resource and constructs social progress and unity.

DhamdhamaAnchalikCollege, a dynamic college of Nalbari district gives highest importance on ethical values. It must be noted that professional education teaches people to be a professional only. To be a real human being, ethical code is must and institute must work on it.

The core ethical principles of DhamdhamaAnchalik College are-

- 1) The college will provide any kind of support to any kind of people without considering backgrounds and identities.
- 2) Awareness on sexual and gender discrimination.
- 3) Protection of tradition, culture and ethnic identity.
- 4) Fight against superstition, racism, economic discrimination and communal violence.
- 5) Development of socio, political and economical standard.
- 6) Mental guidance to the students.
- 7) Skill development programme for the students.
- 8) Improvement of physical abilities.

9) Ragging free environment.

The code of ethics policy fulfils expectations and conditions which conduct day to day work activities and relationships with the stakeholders. Every member maintains the ethical behavior. The code of ethics is based on the UGC guidelines.

All round development of human personality and creation of social peace, progress and prosperity are the main ethics of the college. The college is bound to fulfill the dreams of students, parents and society.

Principal
Dhamdhama Anchalik College

Principal
Dhamdhama Anchalik College